Patent Disputes: Handy Hints For Those In The Trenches

There's more than one way to win a war. The same goes for patent disputes. While some disputes end up in full scale litigation, it is important not to forget the guerrilla tactics which could also lead to success. The legislative and regulatory environment provides a myriad of tools for both attack and defence and we can help you know when and how to use them.

LES ANZ invites you to share some war stories with Odette Gourley and Melissa McGrath who have been in the trenches and can tell you how to keep your feet dry when it feels like the rain will never end.

Odette Gourley,
Partner, Corrs Chambers Westgarth

Odette Gourley is a partner in the IP&T Group and a leading litigator across the spectrum of intellectual property law. In particular she has extensive experience in conducting patent litigation and will share insights into the importance of and how to execute good strategic planning.

Melissa is a solicitor in the IP&T Group. She practices in all areas of intellectual property law with a focus on patent litigation. Melissa has assisted in a number of large patent actions and is well placed to share some practical tips for the foot soldiers.
